O Lord our Supreme Governor, the fountain of all wisdom, whose glory is in all the world; whose will is good and whose law is truth: we commend this grand State of Texas to Thy merciful care, that, being guided by Thy divine providence, we may dwell secure in Thy peace.

Grant to our Governor, Mark, our Speaker, Gib, Representatives and most especially to our Lieutenant Governor, Bill, and all the Senators assembled in this chamber, the wisdom and the strength to discern and follow Thy will and enact laws which shall please Thee and not necessarily other men.

Fill each of them with the love of truth, and empower them to resist temptation, avoid evil, and keep them ever mindful of their calling to serve this people in Thy holy fear.

When citizens come with their special requests, remove their blindness, give them the greater vision, let their sight be to the next horizon, that when all is done, the general populace will have been served for the common good, and Thy will may have been done.

We pray in the name of the God of our Father, Jesus Christ, Lord and Savior. Amen.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following Message from the Governor was received.

Austin, Texas
January 20, 1983

TO THE SENATE OF THE SIXTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE, REGULAR SESSION:

The withdrawal of recess nominations by an incoming governor with the consent of the Senate, is an approved procedure in the State of Texas. TEX. ATT'Y GEN. OP. NO. 2910 (January 21, 1933). The procedure has historical as well as legal precedent. On February 25, 1957, the Senate gave its consent to Governor Price Daniel's withdrawal of outgoing Governor Shivers' appointments of members of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas and members of the Board of Directors of Texas A&M College. Texas Senate Journal, 1957, p. 317.

I urge you to pass legislation clarifying the authority and responsibility of an incoming governor to make appointments. Such legislation should be similar to the legislation passed by both the House and the Senate of the Sixty-Seventh Legislature (Senate Bill No. 859, which was vetoed by my predecessor), but should be expanded to include all appointments occurring between a general election and the day of a new governor's inauguration. Such legislation would have allowed for a more orderly transition between administrations and would have prevented devisive struggles for confirmation of last minute appointments from obscuring the urgent business of state government under a new administration.

For these reasons, I respectfully request your consent to the withdrawal of the following nominations:

TO BE A MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF REGENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS for a six-year term to expire January 10, 1989: THE HONORABLE JOHN B. CONNALLY, of Houston, Harris County, Texas who was to replace Jess Hay, of Dallas, Dallas County, Texas, whose term expired.

In Memory
Leon Jaworski

Senator Brooks offered the following resolution:

(Senate Concurrent Resolution 8)

WHEREAS, The citizens of the State of Texas and of the nation lost a truly great American with the death of Houston attorney Leon Jaworski on December 9, 1982, at the age of 77; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Jaworski was widely esteemed for his outstanding sense of justice, honor, and integrity; his numerous and diversified legal achievements earned him national and international distinction and included his prosecution of Nazi war criminals at Nuremberg and his commendable service as special counsel during the complex Watergate case; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Jaworski, the son of immigrant parents, was born in Waco on September 19, 1905; an ambitious and exceptionally intelligent student, he was graduated from high school and won a scholarship to Baylor University at the age of 15; by 1925, four years later, he had earned his law degree and had become the youngest person to be admitted to the State Bar of Texas; and

WHEREAS, In 1929, he moved to Houston, the city that would remain his home, and joined the law firm of A. D. Dyess; he soon began his long and successful affiliation with Fulbright, Crooker, Freeman & Bates in 1931 as an associate; his consummate skill as a courtroom tactician would be instrumental in establishing the concern, later known as Fulbright & Jaworski, as one of the five largest and most prestigious firms in the country; and

WHEREAS, During World War II, this patriotic Texan served with honor as a colonel in the United States Army and first gained international attention when he became chief prosecutor during the Nuremberg trials from 1945 to 1946; the legal expertise he displayed while prosecuting the first major war crimes in Europe subsequently earned him a Legion of Merit Award; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Jaworski returned to his law practice in 1946, at which time he was made a full partner of the law firm; two years later he represented Lyndon B. Johnson in legal proceedings resulting from his disputed election to the United States Senate; and

WHEREAS, This notable individual's extensive knowledge of law resulted in his appointment to many investigations of national significance; and

WHEREAS, In the early 1960's, Mr. Jaworski worked as a special assistant to both United States Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy and Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr; included among his other important assignments during this period was his appointment to head the state investigation of President John F. Kennedy's assassination in 1963; and

WHEREAS, In 1973, he was named special prosecutor for the Watergate case, a challenging and formidable task that he faced with characteristic skill and professionalism; and

WHEREAS, Under the capable leadership of Mr. Jaworski, the special prosecution force convinced the justices of the United States Supreme Court to subpoena the controversial tapes of White House conversations involved in the landmark case; and

WHEREAS, The Watergate case, which he considered to be the apex of his career, was the last investigation in which he would make a courtroom appearance; however, he still retained his vital interest in jurisprudence; Mr. Jaworski served as special counsel to the United States House of Representatives committee investigating the relationship of congressional members with Tongsun Park, and later served in the same capacity on the House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct in 1977 and 1978; and

WHEREAS, In addition to his many demanding responsibilities in Washington, D.C., and with Fulbright & Jaworski law firm, this accomplished individual also wrote three books chronicling his experiences: Fifteen Years After, The Right and the Power, and Confession and Avoidance; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Jaworski, who was a strong advocate of the state's system of legal education and a moving force behind many of Houston's finest medical facilities and foundations, devoted much of his time to numerous activities to benefit Texas and his city; the list of professional, civic, and religious organizations with which he was affiliated, both as a leader and as a dedicated member, was a long and extensive one; and

WHEREAS, He held nine honorary doctorate degrees and was recognized on many occasions for his countless accomplishments; the M. D. Anderson Foundation awarded two grants in 1972 and 1976 to establish the Leon Jaworski wing and the Leon Jaworski Chair in Practice and Procedure at the law school of Baylor University; and

WHEREAS, He was also cited by the Texas Medical Center for his extraordinary contributions in helping to develop one of the world's largest medical complexes; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Jaworski, who was eulogized as a strong advocate for truth and right, often repeated a quote that he had adopted as his personal philosophy; the statement, written by 19th Century French writer and statesman Alexis de Tocqueville, expressed his own feelings that, "America is great because America is good and if America ceases to be good it will cease to be great"; and

WHEREAS, This remarkable Texan will long be remembered for his tremendous concern for the rights and dignity of all citizens, for his irreplaceable legal talents, and for his many personal and professional contributions to the betterment of the State of Texas and to the country; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Texas, the House of Representatives concurring, That the 68th Legislature hereby pay tribute to the life of Leon Jaworski and express deepest sympathy to the members of his family: to his wife, Jeannette Jaworski; to his daughters, Joanie Moncrief and Claire Draper of Houston; to his son, Joe Jaworski of Houston; to his sister, Mrs. Walter Fuchs of Pflugerville; to his brother, Dr. H. Jaworski of Waco; and to his four grandsons; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be prepared for the members of the family, that pages be set aside in the Journals of the Senate and the House of Representatives in his honor, and that when the Senate and House of Representatives adjourn this day, they do so in memory of Leon Jaworski.

Almighty God, Ruler of the World, we pause for just a moment as our day of lawmaking begins to give thanks for Your love and to remember what we are about. Lord, we have come from our families, and friends, and staffs this morning to serve the public trust. We pray especially today for a compassion and respect for our colleagues...especially those whose views differ from our own...so that without partisan anger we may have the courage to pass laws for the good of all the people.

We pray Your blessing, O Lord, on these men and women of the Senate of Texas, their staffs, and all who serve You here, that they may experience the power of Your presence in their lives. Amen.
